Uh-huh. We have the honor of announcing the advent of the Spring of 1944. It's gen-u-ine-ly official. The basis for this announcement is: 1—Mr. and Mrs. Trudeau have moved their ducks out to Lake Margrethe; 2—the robin family is arriving in goodly numbers, and working overtime to find the early worm (WE haven't found one yet); the sucker (fish species) family is due to run, according to word from our Conservation Officer; and 4—we ran into swarms of gnats in the woods near School Section Lake last Sunday. But we lay special stress on the willingness of the sun to peek out more frequently sun to peek out more frequently and provide us with more warm days. Even if the mornings are a bit chilly and frosty, as yet.

We haven't met "Sailor' lately; but we presume he is too busy making flies that are guaranteed to be as strong an inducement to the trout and as catching as that perfume Mac & Gidley provide—for a price—at their superdeluxe drug store down street. ## Matt Doorly Versus the Tomato

Matt Doorly's skin broke out in a rash last week. He finally admitted to Doc Hollister he'd eaten twelve tomatoes in a row just the day before.

"Shucks," said Doc. "That's all that's the matter with you. That kind of eating would turn anybody red.

So now Matt has not only cut out all tomatoes for himself. He's forbidden his family to cat tomatoes. And won't even have them in the house. Says tomatoes are anti-social and ought to be prohibited by law.

Funny how some people rush off to extremes like that. They take a wholesome thing and overdo it till it disagrees with them-or maybe find they don't happen to like it-and then they want it banned for everybody.

From where I sit, folks ought to realize there's a middle ground in everything—a middle ground of moderation on the one hand . . . and tolerance for our neighbors on the other.

"Quite a stack of newspapers I left you yesterday, Judge. Aren't goin' in the news paper business, are you?

"No. I just enjoy reading different papers so my nephew George sends them to me whenever he takes a business trip I got a big kick out of some he sent me from several counties where they still have prohibition. Particularly from some headlines that read 'Drunk Driving Arrests Rise'

Bootleggers must post Ceiling Prices', Federal Agents seize' Trick' Liquor Truck'. Doesn't that go to prove, Joe, that prohibition does not prohibit?

"I watched conditions pretty carefully during our 13 years of prohibition in this country. The only thing I could see we got out of it was bootleg liquor instead of legal liquor :: plus the worst crime and corrup-tion this country has ever known."

The heroic work done by fire fighters. in so many of the towns and cities of our Allies, which have been showered with incendiaries and explosives, is drama itself. The job of our own firemen right here at home in Michigan may be less spectacular but it's no less important-particularly to us. Yet most of us give little thought to this vital safeguard of our everyday life - until an emergency comes along.

There are 3,438 men in Michigan whose full-time jab is the protection of lives and property of the citizens of this State. These are the regular firemen-

To all of these valiant men, we of the Greyhound Lines pay sincere tribute. We're proud of these fellow-citizensthankful for them, too. And we feel we have at least one thing in common with them. They're fighting hard to improve the safety record of our State and soare we. In these tense and busy days, we feel that Greyhound, in providing safe, convenient transportation betweenthis community and its good neighbors, is also playing its part in making Michigan a safer, ha ppier place to live.
